10-Week Beginner Course Terms & Conditions

- Places on the 10-week beginner courses are generally limited to participants aged 17+
- The maximum number of funded places available is TEN
- The 10-week course will start no earlier than April 2025, once the required number of participants has been reached. Participants will be allocated on a first come, first served basis. If the first course is over-subscribed, applicants will be added to a waiting list and will be contacted in the event of anyone not showing up or dropping out. Those on the waiting list will also be prioritised for future courses
- Classes will take place on Tuesdays from 7.45 pm to 9.00 pm. Participants are limited to attending only this session each week for duration of the 10-week course.
- Medway Park Judo Club will prioritise applicants seeking to participate in Judo on a long-term basis.
- Participants will take out membership of Medway Park Judo Club on commencing the course, and will be required to complete a membership form. All personal data are held securely according to GDPR guidelines. Membership will be valid until 31st December 2025.
- Participants will receive a 10-session pre-pay card, entitling them to attend up to 10 sessions free-of-charge in the 10-week beginner course period. If a participant misses one or more sessions in the 10-week period, no alternative or additional sessions will be offered. Continuing participants will start to pay the session fee (currently £3 for members) at the conclusion of the course.
- Participants will borrow a Judo jacket and belt for the first three weeks of the course, until they decide to commit to completion of the full 10 weeks. At three weeks, participants will receive a Judo suit and belt in their size depending on stock availability. In the event that we do not have a suit of the appropriate size, one will be ordered (subject to availability from the supplier). Any participant that does not complete the 10-week course will be expected to return their suit.
- Participants will be expected to take out membership of British Judo at week four of the course. Participants will be required to register with British Judo and make payment for a new one-year membership, and will be reimbursed by Medway Park Judo Club on proof of approval of membership. Participants will receive a free white belt on taking out British Judo membership.
- Participants that complete the 10-week course will be entitled to one free grading to 6th Kyu (red belt). This is subject to the participant having made sufficient progress to grade and successful completion of the grading requirements.
- Any participant that does not turn up for the start of the 10-week course without prior notice, or who misses more than two consecutive sessions, or who decides not to continue at any point during the course will forfeit their place on the course and will no longer be eligible for any of the course entitlements.
